- Make sure the email is not being quarantined by any firewall or security program.

Q: Where do the Knowledge-Based Authentication (KBA) questions come from, and what if I don't know the answers?

A:

The KBA security questions are pulled from government and credit data sources. You may be asked about:

- Past addresses
- Vehicle or home purchase dates

If the questions don't apply to you, select the most accurate answer. If you don't remember or answer incorrectly, you won't be able to sign electronically. The system will prompt to a manual upload.

- Please Note:

You may not qualify for KBA if the third-party provider lacks sufficient data. This often applies to taxpayers who are: Young, recently moved to the U.S., long-term residents abroad or new citizens

Q: What if I fail the KBA questions and must upload my e-file form(s) manually?
